

ADULT RECREATION THERAPY CENTRE

The Adult Recreation Therapy Centre (ARTC) is a community-based adult day program offering structured activities to individuals affected by conditions such as stroke, Parkinson's disease, MS, and other progressive disorders, as well as for adults with diminished abilities related to mild cognitive impairment related to early dementia.

1971

1984

1997

2001

2015

